

Takachsins/Lodge Dinner 2018

Takachsins was held on November 3rd, 2018 at the Lincoln LDS Stake Center. Almost 50 Arrowmen came together to learn about how to serve the Lodge and their chapters in the next year. Courses included Ceremony reflections, a course on servant leadership and a lodge history course among others. In addition, a lodge leadership panel was held, and attendees had the opportunity to ask questions of the incoming LEC members. Later in the evening the Lodge Dinner was held and many Arrowmen were recognized for their service in the last year. As well, the 2019 Lodge Officers and Advisers were sworn in. Pictures of the swearing in are below.

NLS 2018

On November 16th 13 Arrowman from Amangi Nacha Lodge joined many more from around the Western Region for either National Leadership Seminar (NLS) or Developing Youth Leaders Conference (DYLC) a weekend of fellowship, fun, and building leadership skills at Granlibakken Resort in Tahoe City, CA. Everyone had a great time and left with even more ideas and resources to make the lodge better!

Chapter Spotlight-Amangi Mayi

Amangi Mayi is comprised of Arrowmen from the Capital City district – Sacramento. The Chapter meets regularly and participates in OA events like Fellowships, Ordeals, Conclaves and NOAC. We recently restored our chapter tipi and worked on securing poles and learning how to put it up. We learned the technique at the 2018 Winter fellowship and were able to use it at our camporee.

Our main area of service for our chapter is planning, staffing and running our District's camporee for the past 3 years. The 2018 one was a great success at River Bend Park on the Sacramento river where over 250 Scouts and Scouters came together for a weekend of camping, competition and fun.

We recently had a Scouter come forward and tell us he had some drums that belonged to the chapter. When we retrieved the drums, which are probably 30 – 40 years old, we decided to reskin them. We procured the leather and researched how to skin a drum (thanks YouTube!). The first one we did turned out great and will be doing the other ones in the near future. The next step will be learning how to play them and learning songs. The Chapter is looking forward to 2019 and is currently amid planning for the April camporee, preparing for elections and getting ready for a great year of Scouting.
