2012 W3N Section Conclave Planning

Planning is well underway for the 2012 Section W3N Conclave. Chief Taylor LaRue, kicked off planning for the Section W3N Conclave right after the September Council of Chiefs meeting. Amangi Nacha is the host Lodge for the September 2012 Conclave being held at Camp Marin Sierra.

The camp is up Interstate 80, near Truckee. The camp setting is just right for Arrowmen coming from anywhere in the Section. It's just a couple of miles North of the Interstate 80 off ramp so it should make it easy for any of our long distance travelers to make our Friday's crackerbarrel on time.

Joining Taylor with the preliminary tour was Section Adviser Larry Firth, Lodge Adviser Wil Conner, and several Associate Advisers. The planning team walked through the entire camp and made preliminary recommendations for designating activity areas.

You may see some of the traditional Conclave AIA activities but stand by for some high

Lodge Adviser's Report

2012 Lodge Leadership

This month has been very slow but still have been getting things done. This month we have talked about preparation for the Fellowship and Scout Expo. Program plays a major role in those two events and that is why we are working hard to get those events completed.

Patrick Ganaway
Lodge Vice Chief of Program

I am the Vice Chief of Camping for Amangi Nacha. My name is Jonathan Sant. What I do is promote going camping throughout the Lodge and Chapters. I tell Chapters and Units to go camping at Council Camps such as Winton & Lassen. I also tell unite to go on campouts and encourage them to go camping more often. My message to everyone is to go camping and to have fun, but to camp safely.

Jonathan Sant
Vice Chief of Camping

Hello Amangi Nacha Lodge

Elections have all been wrapped up. We have a total of 87 candidates elected. The next big things are Ordeals. Lassen is going to be this month, May 18-20. Winton Ordeal June 8-10. Please insure that you, as the chapters, are calling all your candidates and are encouraging them to attend your Ordeal. As of April 24, 2012 the Brotherhood conversion rate is 3.43%.

Chapter Updates

Amangi Mayi

Last Weekend at Camporee we had a callout ceremony. A large number were called out then. Afterwards at a brotherhood ceremony, we had seven people become brotherhood. Every second Thursday of every month we have a meeting. Our last meeting we talked about the upcoming callout and the ordeals that our Chapter should participate in.

Amangi V

Curahee

Curahee Chapter has had a very busy last month. We hosted our district Camporee at the new Council camp, Camp Nauvoo. The event was very successful with 290= youth and adults attending . The Camporee was a hit with the Scottish themed fames and OA staff wearing kilts. Another big event was our district dinner that we hosted. It was a big turnout with delicious food.

Dennis Curtin, Chief

Eluwak

Casey Reynolds, Chief

The Eluwak chapter held our call out April 28th. It was very successful, our ceremonies team conducted a call out that our canidates for this year will remember for years to come. Parents and family members had praise for the event.

Our next chapter event will be June 14th. We hold chapter meetings on every second Thursday at the LDS church on the corner of Locust and Garfield in Carmichael: 4252 Garfield Avenue, Carmichael, CA 95608.

Kendwit Ihum

The Kendwit Ihum chapters Camporee was very successful. There was an attendance of 250. The activities went well and were run by the troops adult leaders. We had a call out ceremony ub which 25 candidates were called out. Also there was a Brotherhood ceremony in which 12 people became Brotherhood. Finally that weekend ended.

Paul Bagley, Chief

Kowaunkamish

We had hot chocolate and coffee, and we hosted the District Camporee on April 4th. We are getting ready for the ordeal on the 19th of May.

Cory Wilert, Chief

Maidu

Machapter put on the annual idu Camporee this year with the theme "Zombie River". It was a huge hit, especially the Catapult Station. We are all very proud of our OA members who stepped up to the plate and helped us pull off the best Camporee ever.

Jordan Bush, Chief
