TITO-WA

Special thanks goes to Skylar Willis, Terry Weisser, David Pattison, and Bob Rogers for their work on the elections this past month. Also, thanks to all arrowmen who helped on the election procedures.

The Dance team has been very active with pack dances. Five are scheduled for January, February, and March, with the Camporee in April as a true test of our teams ability. Thanks to TJ Rakitan, dance team leader, as well as Bryan Hald and Craig Tanner for leading the Tito-Wa singers. The following members attended the February Pow Wow at Camp Pollock: Ryan and Rex Starr, with Brian, Tim and Kim Wilkinson. The ceremonial teams are beginning to work on the upcoming Call Out ceremony. The Davis team will perform this April. The Woodland team has consented to do the Ordeal ceremony at the Ordeal in June. Seven members of our chapter will attend the National Order of the Arrow Conference in Tennessee. These members are practicing to compete in the Brotherhood competition. Three of the youth members will also compete in the Dance Competition. Good luck to all that are going: Brian Page, Brian Wilkinson, Jeff Ito, Tim Wilkinson, Marc Alkons, Craig Tanner, and Kim Wilkinson. Thanks to those who attend the Council of Chiefs meeting: TJ Rakitan, David Pattison, Ryan Starr, Brian Wilkinson, Craig Tanner, and Kim Wilkinson. Some were attending sessions, while others were teaching sessions. The Council Dinner was a great success thanks to the assistance of the arrowmen who attended. They helped serve and clean the tables and dishes. Thanks to Tito-Wa arrowmen: Niel Redenbaugh, Jim Cheney, Rob Floreke, Brian, Tim, and Kim Wilkinson. Reminder, the Camporee is April 14, 15 and 16. See you there.

Tito-Wa Chapter Chief

Kowaunkamish

The new meeting format is working. More Arrowmen are attending (youth and adult) and voluntarily getting involved with all activities the Chapter has planned. Chapter communication has improved and youth leadership abounds. Four Arrowmen served at the Golden Empire Council Dinner. They were Richard and Jeff Barnes-Allan and Carl and Patrick Brazee.

The Buttes Area District Dinner was held February 24th. The Kowaunkamish Chapter performed Color Guard duties and the dance and drum team performed. The dance teams members were Eagle Scout Patrick Brazee, Eagle Scout Nick Bumpas, Eagle Scout Michael Mihalyi, Eagle Scout Jared Green, Life Scout Josh Green, and Star Scout Jeff Barnes-Allan. The drum team members were Teddy Green, Ron Cowen, Nick Gates, Richard Barnes-Allan, Carl Brazee, and Eagle Scout Ryan Cowen. Eagle Scout Michael Mihalyi was introduced as the new Chapter Chief; Carl Brazee and Richard Barnes-Allan were introduced as Co-Chapter Advisors. They presented a plaque to Ron Cowen for his tenure as Tribe/Chapter Advisor from January 1993 - November 1999. Thank you Ron! We can't put into words what your dedication has meant to the Kowaunkamish Chapter. Richard Barnes-Allan was awarded the Frontliner Scouter Award for his service to the Chapter. Carl Brazee was awarded the Buttes Area District Award of Merit for contributions to scouting on Beale Air Force Base and the Buttes Area District. Congratulations Richard and Carl!

The Buttes Area District Spring Camporee (Millennium Camporee) is set for April 28-30, 2000. It will be held in the Sutter Buttes. The theme is "Return to the Land of Histum Yani". Histum Yani is the Maidu name for the Sutter Buttes meaning "middle mountain". Activities planned are knot relay, first aid station, fire starter, log raising, rappel wall, sling shot, Kim's game, tomahawk throw, spear chuck, and Indian WWF. Of course the campfire will occur Saturday night, and, for a change we have to pro-

Lodge Adviser Larry "Lama" Frith

Around the Lodge members are jumping in and making things happen. Chief Lewis is working hard to provide and improve training at the lodge meetings. Morgan Mayer with the help Mark Spitzer is working on a super, super fellowship. I bet it will be better than the Conclave. Just wait until the Lodge meeting when they unveil this program. Craig Tanner says elections are going well in all but one chapter, so help is being sent in from other chapters to help Patwin. Thanks Miwok and Eluwak chapters. Ta Tanka Ska is looking very good, there are new officers and activities all over their district. Keep it up! Welcome to Sandy Moulton the new Adviser of the Cha-Pa-Di Chapter. Sandy is a SUPER dedicated Arrowmen to take on the challenge of rebuilding the sleeping chapter. She has a great deal of respect in her District and brings energy and creative ideas for the youth in her area. Everyone step up and let Sandy know you support her, get involved at the Chapter level and share ideas and support at the Lodge level. Now on to the dinner. THANKS to everyone who served at the Council Dinner. There are far to many members to mention all your names in this article, but rest assured you guys did a Great job and should feel proud of your efforts. I have received rave reviews all the way from our Council Exec. Doug McDonald and Chairman of the Board J.J. McClatchy to the Chefs in the kitchen. By the way I learned Mr. McClatchy is a Vigil Member. People were impressed by the professionalism of the youth members, how they kept water glasses full, served with style, cleared dishes quickly and quietly, and seeing the Lodge officers and advisers right in with every one else working. We had many unsung heroes, Sandy Moulton and were making Gerry Albright being sure each plate was perfect when it left the kitchen. Kim Wilkinson jumped in with a gang of boys and cleaned dishes for hours, I can't thank you guys enough! Besides, dinner detail thanks go out to Bill and Jon Rogers and Vice Chief Sean Gaffney for Building a Excellent Camp and Lodge

DINNER AND NOAC UPDATE

First, let me congratulate the Arrowmen who participated in the activities at the Council Dinner in February. You did an excellent job of representing the Lodge and I am proud of every one of you for a job well done. I extend to you the appreciation of the Council Executive also for a job well done. Everyone was complimentary about the Lodge, and I feel you demonstrated what cheerful service is all about. I also want to congratulate Mike Gaffney as the first recipient of the Lodge's James E. West donation to the Council. If you are going to NOAC 2000, please note the following schedule for payments: total of $150 by January 31, 2000; total of $400 by March 31st; and the balance by May 31st. Because of the favorable airfares we were able to obtain the total fee will be $500. We will be departing Sacramento late on July 27th and returning late on August 3rd. We will spend the night of July 28th at the Radisson Hotel in downtown Knoxville. The hotel is an easy stroll to the Trade-O-Ree being held prior to the start of NOAC and the contingent will have the opportunity to visit it. Further info will be coming out on NOAC soon. Make sure your fees are up to date. At last count there were still two slots available for youth (under 21). If you want to go, especially at this bargain price, send in an application and the required fees as of this date. All Arrowmen are invited to purchase the special 2-piece fundraiser patch set which should be available soon.

Bob Nelson,
Deputy Lodge Adviser

ATTENTION

CHAPTER ADVISORS :
At the Council of Chiefs meeting held on January 15th we had chapter representatives attend the session on Indian Lore. At this session information was given about Indian traditions and customs. We also had a good time making Indian Fry Bread. At the next Council of Chiefs meeting we will again have great ideas for helping your chapter start to use the very traditions that our Order was founded on. These sessions are intended to give you ideas, allow you to start ceremonial teams and/or dance teams, as well as update you on Indian events that are happening in our area. Take advantage of this meeting, send a youth or an adult or both. Last meeting participants received the Indian Lore Handbook loaded with helpful pages on outfitting, dancing, Pow Wow traditions, as well as a How to Get Teams Started checklist. If you attend this next session, and did not receive this valuable booklet your chapter will receive it at the session. Don't miss out! Next Council of Chiefs meeting is March 18th at Camp Pollock.

Kim Wilkinson
Indian Lore Advisor,

vide our own Ceremonies Team for the OA Callout (a challenge for our new Vice Chief of Indian Lore).

The next event is Junior Woodchuck Day (date TBD). Nick Gates has volunteered to run it for the Chapter. Indian chokers, sodas, and candy will be sold as a fundraiser.

Aaron Smith had his Eagle Court of Honor January 15th, Jason Moore had his February 5th. I'd like to thank the members of the Irekwan Chapter for attending. Congratulations Aaron and Jason!

Promo display. Credit for the organizing goes out to Activity Vice Chief David Rojo and Activity Adviser Bob MoneyMaker, Good Job! I am very Proud of everyone in this event, and hope to see this enthusiasm and effort all the way through conclave and an awesome party at the Fellowship. We can do it! Lets all step up and bring our Ordeals to a new level of Quality to be sure the Candidates have the experience they deserve, and event they will be happy to remember. Ordeals are also a perfect place for members to seal their commitment in the order, by fulfilling their Brotherhood. I hope to see everyone at Ordeals working and sharing the load.

In Brotherhood and Service,

Larry Frith

Lodge Chief

Fellow Arrowmen,

I want to take a moment to thank everyone for the work they put in at our first successful lodge meeting in January. I look forward to our meeting in March, when we will include an overnight to give our lodge leadership an opportunity to get to know one another better. Our new committee system provides an opportunity for all of our lodge membership to be involved in the planning process, so if you are interested in shaping the events of our lodge, please see your Chapter Chief. At the March meeting, we will focus on developing a plan for meeting the requirements for the Quality Lodge Recognition. Last year, we missed meeting of a few a these goals because of some misunderstandings. On Friday evening, we will attempt to clear up some of these issues. In addition, we will continue planning for upcoming events, which include this summer's Ordeals, NOAC, the Lodge Recognition Dinner in August, and the Section Conclave and Lodge Fellowship in September and October. We will need plenty of help with these events, so again, please ask your Chapter Chief where you can be of service. Finally, continue to keep your pledge of selfless service paramount in your daily lives. We are the senior Scout leadership in this council, and we must set the example.

Camping

Brothers,

I would like to commend everyone who helped with the Council Dinner. With everyone's help, the dinner was a complete success. In order to help retain possession of the Bald Eagle this coming conclave, the camping committee needs to do its part in the competitions. The only way this can happen is if we get more people to join the camping committee and help with the cause. We are also looking for a dedicated few OA members to take photos of the different camps and activities coming up. The camp promotion booth is ready to be loaned out to people who are interested. I also ask that the "Where Troops are Going to Summer Camp" survey forms that were a part of each election be turned into me as soon as possible. We are still accepting applications for camper ships. Applications are in the last issue of the Squawks, or I can get you one as soon as possible. For information on how to get on the camping committee, to become the camping committee's photographer, to rent out the camp promotions booth, to turn in the survey forms, or to get a campership application, e-mail me at mecki_mania@hotmail.com or call me at (916) 965-9461.

Yours in Brotherhood,

Sean Gaffney

Vice Chief of Camping

Indian Lore

The Indian Lore Committee is off to a good start. At the last lodge meeting committee member went trough a general Indian Lore workshop and made Indian Fry Bread. At the next lodge meeting the committee will break into two sub-committees, one for dancing and one for ceremonies. Five Arrowmen attended the Pow Wow. They were Brian and Tim Wilkinson, Ryan and Rex Starr, and adult Kim Wilkinson. Tim won a T-shirt in the raffle. All members danced grass except for Rex. There were three drums in attendance, with the lead drum being the American River Singers. The next Pow Wow is in April. For more information contact Charles Todd at (530) 639 2499 or via email at coat@jps.net

Communication

Hello brothers, I'm looking for some people that could help me to establish a publications committee. I would hope that all members of this committee would be the V.C. of Communication for their Chapter. This committee would help to form the chapter articles and other assignments. I would hope that all members of the committee would have access to a computer. All members of this committee would be asked to go to the LCOC (Lodge Council of Chiefs) meeting. If you have any questions please e-mail at majtrach@c-zone.net or call me at (530) 223-5109. On page 9 is the committee form. Please fill out the form and send it to the address, that is if you have no questions and want to get started right away.
