Lodge Chief

My Brothers,

Stephen Arndt
Lodge Chief

The 13th year of our lodge is coming close to an end. I would like to thank our staffs for both Fall Fellowship and the Section W3B Conclave for their hard work and for a good job. Our Ordeals have been great; however, we need to get those last few candidates to the Fall Ordeal on October 13-15 at Camp Lassen. Also, strive to get those brotherhood candidates at that ordeal, there will be a brotherhood ceremony.

It has come that time of year for our chapter elections; this is the base of all Order of the Arrow leadership. If you are at all inter-

V C Indian Lore

My Fellow Arrowmen,

Ben Whiteley
VC Indian Lore

This summer was an exciting one for Indian Lore. We spent a lot of time preparing for NOAC 2006, starting over a year ago, and this summer was what it was for. First, I would like to congratulate our current Lodge Chief Stephen Arndt for being ranked as an Honor performer for the Vigil Ceremony. We also had Stephen Whitcomb perform the Vigil cere-

VC Inductions

Hello Brothers,

Joey Goodknight
VC Inductions

Again it is time we should be thinking of doing elections in all the units possible in our districts. Please be turning in all of your forms as you complete your elections. This can most easily be done by handing them to me or my adviser at the monthly CoC but you can also mail them to my adviser, Mr. Arndt at his address on the Lodge Roster. Early though it may seem, it is also time to be working on the upcoming Ordeals this Spring/Summer. Ask your Chapter Chief to see what you can do to help at your chapter's ordeal! Good Luck to all of us as we elect new brothers into our order!

Yours in Cheerful Service,
Joey Goodknight

mony; Chris Haley, Willie Dove, Cameron Petit, and Joey Goodknight performed the Brotherhood ceremony; and we had two teams perform the Ordeal ceremony, Ryan Highland, Joseph Giambo, Lee Winyinger, and Anthony Colombo on team 1 and James Panabaker, Tyler Getreu, Ben Whiteley, and Paul Cebra on team 2. We also had several dancers, with Chris Haley doing very well, and a drum team that sang very well. Thanks to all the teams, and all the advisors that helped them out. Good job, guys!

YIB,
Ben Whiteley

VC Administration

Brothers,

Joseph Giambo
VC Administra-

To my fellow Arrowmen and Brothers,

I have been asked to write a letter as both your outgoing Lodge Vice

Chief of Administration and your incoming Lodge Vice Chief of Programs. As your outgoing VC administration I would like to say that it has been a successful year. The lodge didn't burn down and we didn't go bankrupt. As your incoming Lodge Vice Chief of Programs I would like to say that we are on the verge of an even more successful year. I have many ideas that I will start to work on as soon as I am installed in November. This year I wish to have alternative transportation to lodge events, I wish to have a functioning council wide troop representative program, I also wish to start a scoutreach program so that not only does the OA benefit from its pool of leadership but so does the entire Golden Empire Council. With the help of the lodge and the council of chiefs this next year will not only be a productive one but it will be extremely fun.

Yours in Service,
Joseph Giambo

New Officers

As your newly elected 2007 Lodge Chief, I would like to begin by thanking you for your support in my candidacy. It will be a wonderful privilege to serve this lodge and its members in the upcoming year. I can not express my enthusiasm greatly enough. Under my direction 2007 will be a year filled with fun and fellowship. I would personally like to congratulate the other officers that were also elected at this past Fall Fellowship. I look forward to serving each and every member of this mighty lodge next year.

Yours in cheerful service,
Scott Inman

Brothers!

Recently, I have been chosen by you to be your 2007 Lodge Vice Chief of Administration. I am greatly honored to hold this position. It is my goal to have an accurate roster of Chapter and Lodge Officers, as well as, to have an accurate Lodge register of who has paid dues and who has not paid dues. I also plan on making sure that our Lodge and all of our Chapters have balanced budgets that are delivered on time, unlike in the years past. This next year will be very busy for all of us, but I know if we stick together and work together that we can make anything happen! I look forward to serving you this upcoming year! Go get'em Nacho's!

Sincerely,
Ryan Hyland
Lodge Vice Chief of Administration 2007

My Brothers,

This past summer, I had the incredible experience of attending NOAC. While I was there, I competed in the Northern Traditional Dance Competition. It was one of the greatest experiences of my life. As your 2007 Vice Chief of Indian Affairs, I plan to strengthen our dance and drum teams. I believe that if we could have a monthly practice, our teams, both dance and drum, could make a big change in our lodge.

Ceremonies are an important part of the order. In having good ceremonies, we spark the interest of the younger scouts early, creating the desire to join. The interest of the younger scouts is incredibly important, and a good ceremonies team is the best way to do it. I look forward to serving you this coming year, and launching our Indian affairs teams to the best they can be.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Mike Ivey

2006 NOAC TRIP

The Chapter Update Corner

See what your chapter and neighboring chapters have been up to and how you can get more involved.

Amangi V Chapter

August:

This August was a productive month for the Amangi V Chapter. We had a great chapter meeting where John Quereto visited us and taught us several South Pacific Islander dances, including the Swahili "Hakka". Also at the August meeting we elected Robby Conlin as the interim Chapter Chief and Chris Langston to take over the Vice-Chief of Indian Lore position. Twelve people from our Chapter went to Fall Fellowship at Camp Lassen including three of our newly inducted members. The Amangi V Brotherhood Ceremony Team also performed at Fall Fellowship. It was one of our Chapter's best performances and many Lodge members came to watch.

Kendwit Ihum Chapter

August

Hello my brothers

Welcome to another exciting month of OA. First off I would like to say that our river cats meeting was a blast. Our brothers who attended the game had a lot of fun enjoying the game and eating a lot of great food. On a second note our chapter has been growing a lot the past few months and I'd like it to continue doing so, you could help by coming more to the meetings and by bringing a friend.

Remember we meet on the second Thursday of each month at the LDS church on vintage park. So come see what the fun is about.

YIB

Brian O'Donnell,
Vice Chief of Communications.

September:

Kudos for another great month of OA but we still need better attendance at our chapter meetings. We are going to be trying new fun, fresh ideas for this month and need your input. To give your input it's just as easy as showing up to the meetings or showing up to events. Upcoming we have some special events like our lodges fall ordeal, fellowship and conclave. Available now you can sign up for our drum, dance or ceremony teams. These teams enlighten your understanding of The Order more and plus it's a real good time. It would be great to see you guys out there.

From yours in brotherhood
Brian O'Donnell.

Kowaunkamish Chapter

August:

The Kowaunkamish chapter provided the Ordeal Master and Advisor for the Cole Ordeal July 7-9. We had 33 candidates complete their ordeal and seven complete their brotherhood conversion. Sean Price completed his ordeal and Richard Hulett completed his brotherhood conversion for the Kowaunkamish Chapter.

Seven members attend NOAC. They were Brendan Mallory, Michael Lewis, Ben Whiteley, Donald McCausland, Joshua Green, Ron Cowen, and Teddy Green. They all had a good time.

We held a chapter on August 12th – four youth and two adults attend

Yours in brotherhood
John Hampton
Kowaunkamish Chapter Chief

Wintun Chapter

August:

Wintun Chapter's latest meeting was our Chapter Barbeque. We had approximately 68 people attend. The night was filled with fun, food, and fellowship. At the Fall Fellowship in August we had sixteen people representing our Chapter. In the coming weeks we are planning to get more people signed up for conclave, so Wintun can have a large show there as well. Wintun is also working on a Pre-Ordeal and Ordeal ceremony team for the Fall Ordeal.

My fellow Arrowmen,

My name is Brian Knox and at this year's fellowship you elected me to be your 2007 Lodge Vice-Chief of Communications. My vision for the upcoming year is to make our lodge communications more efficient. Achieving this will be no small task and I have selected two main goals to help me achieve my vision. First, I want to see our newsletter get more articles from the Arrowmen who really count. You! Second I would like to get one or two photographers to take pictures of the Amazing Nachos in action for our newsletter at each lodge event. If you are interested in taking pictures or writing articles for the newsletter please contact me at graylupe22@hotmail.com or look for me at any lodge event.

NOAC 2006

The 2006 NOAC trip started out with a Bar-B-Que at the Eluwak Scout Lodge, behind Larry Friths Business. Don Malke, Jerry Ito and Ron Cowen were the cooks for the event. The weather that week before was over 100 degrees every day. We couldn't wait to head for cooler weather. What we ran into was a record heat wave in East Lansing. We arrived in Detroit and proceeded to the Ford F 150 assembly plant in Rouge River. The group then proceeded to The Henry Ford Museum and spent the afternoon there. Following the Museum we arrived at our hotel just long enough to get our rooms and off to the East Lansing Lugnuts Baseball game. The Lugnuts hosted us at a all you can eat Bar-B-Que and T-Shirts.

Fall Fellowship

Did you miss the Fall Fellowship? Did you miss the opportunity to fellowship with the other members of your lodge? If you were there you know what fun it was. If you missed it, you missed one of the best. Camp Lassen offers a wonderful setting for a time of relaxation, fun and fellowship. We started the weekend with fun and games and lots of free prizes. On Saturday, everyone had the opportunity to participate in a variety of sports and competitions between chapters that lasted throughout the entire day. We were thrilled at the opportunity to have both the rifle range and Bow and Arrow range at our disposal. There was plenty of opportunity for everyone to participate in both. A lot of our members had the opportunity to learn a few new games as well as spend some time just getting to know the other members of our Lodge. We want to give a really big thank you to Jim Kaupanger and his kitchen crew. They provided us with some of the best meals anyone could ask for at a Fellowship.

See you all there.
Teddy Green

The next morning we were off to Michigan State for NOAC. We all attended classes, traded patches, attended the nightly shows and ate more pizza than we could stand. We had ceremony teams compete and dancers compete. The drum team competed for their second NOAC. All in all I think everyone enjoyed the trip. The Lodge is going to 2009 NOAC in Bloomington Indiana and will be looking for Dancers, Drummers and Ceremony Teams for the trip. Those interested should contact Michael Ivey 2007 VC of Indian Lore.
