Prepare your self for the year 2000 W3 Conclave that will be held on September 15-17 at Two Rock USCG (United States Coast Guard) Training Center, Petaluma, CA. This year, sections W3A, W3B, and W3C will sponsor the conclave, so actually this year's conclave will actually be a Tri-clave, filled with fun and adventure. This will be our second Tri-clave preformed, the first was held in 1993. I have herd that Two Rock is a wonderful place, and we all ask that you follow the rules that are posted and \or given to you there so we can all enjoy this conclave. Basically you want to follow the 12 points of the scout Law plus RESPECT! If you would like a complete listing of the rules at Two Rock, please visit the conclave homepage at <http://w3conclave.scouter.org/default.html>

There will be many activities that will be held for your enjoyment as well, including a carnival, midway booths, vendors form national outdoor supply companies, chili cookout, demonstrations and displays form the USCG, the State of California Governor's Office of Emergency Services, and many other things. There will also be our standard OA activities that we all enjoy being part of in all OA events, such as the good old 5k run, volleyball, log saw, tomahawk throw, ceremony competitions, dance competitions, a brotherhood ceremony, fabulous shows by the Tannu Lodge Production Team, Hawaiian Luau, and of course, what would we be with out that famous OA Jeopardy. All of these events have been vigorously planned by the Council of Chiefs form all three sections, and if you see them, you should thank them for planning out such a wonderful event that is at hand.

Two Rock itself is eight miles west of Petaluma, California. This rolling, pastoral countryside is 800 acres large that is on the Sonoma-Marin County line. If you would like a map you may go to the website <http://w3conclave.scouter.org/default.html> and go to the link for map. The base serves as a training facility for the Coast Guard. It operates ten schools, that teach 50 courses for over 7000 students a year.

Now some of you out there are probably wondering...how do I get there. Well if you need a map I once again suggest the W3 website listed above for information on how to get there and if you haven't signed up to go yet, you can sign up there.

This event at Two Rock, I believe, will be a very interesting activity to witness. I myself have never been to a Tri-Clave before. There will be lots of

Amangi V

Amangi V had Waren Mulcahy and Travis Garrett at the Pahatsi ordeal as Elangomats. The Amangi V Chapter received 19 new members from that ordeal. We also received three from the Lassen Ordeal. Travis Garrett and Jeff Mulcahy are helping to plan the Lodge Recognition Dinner in November.

The Amangi V Chapter added one Brotherhood member, while increasing membership by 22 following Ordeal Ceremonies at the Council camps this summer. Included in this number are 21 young men and one adult. Warren Mulcahy earned his Brotherhood membership at the Camp Pahatsi Ordeal.

Those new members who attended the Camp Lassen Ordeal included: John Nitta, Kevin Martinez and Charles Witkowski.

Those who completed their ordeal at Camp Pahatsi included: Ryan Benbow, Donnie Clubb, Erik Erickson, Kent Gillmore, Doug Ginther, Mike Ginther, Robert Harper, Jeff Hogg, Scott Johnson, Trevor Lawton, Charles Martin, Jacob Mulcahy, Spencer Owens, Ben Thacker, David Vaughn, Ian Wilkie, and Tom Cook. Two others completed the Glacial Trails Scout Ranch Ordeal, they are John Kenney, and Eric Schott.

We are expecting another increase this fall as many candidates have expressed a desire to attend the Camp Pollack Ordeal in October.

This increase brings the Amangi V Chapter's current membership to 62. Current members will focus on retention, while inviting former members to remember the Obligation and return to activity in the chapter in the coming months.

For information you may contact Jeff Mulcahy, chapter advisor,
(916) 773-2971 or email to:

Tito-Wa

Welcome to our new members who attended the recent summer ordeals. We look forward to seeing you on September 8th, this is because we do not have meetings in July or August, due to troops summer events. In fact I just got back from a fantastic trip to Philmont. While I was at Philmont our Woodland Ordeal team did a great job at the Pahatsi Ordeal. A special thanks goes to Ben Bringham who lead this group from a completely new ceremonial team to a well rehearsed and successful performance. Our first meeting on September 8th will be from 7 to 8 pm, at the Davis Community Church. Please be sure to sign up now for the W3B conclave, as it will be too late for sign ups at our first meeting. In three weeks, six Tito-Wa members will be heading for Tennessee to attend the National Order of the Arrow Conference. They will compete in the Brotherhood Ceremonial competition and in Indian Dance competition. Hopefully they will also sing in the Brotherhood Chorus. Enjoy your summer.

ELUWAK CHAPTER

I would like to welcome all of our new Ordeal members. Our meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month at the LDS Church located at Garfield & Locust in Carmichael.

The meeting is from 7:30pm to 8:30pm.

Our chapter participated in the Pahatsi Ordeal. I was the Ordeal Master and Gerry Albright was my advisor. The Ordeal was a great success and the food was VARY special. I would like to thank every one who participated and a special thanks to the members who participated on the ceremony team. And a hands up to Darrell Winn the Camp Director for all of his help.

Don't miss the August meeting we are going to design and make chokers just for our chapter, planning a camping trek to GTSR, working on getting every one to Brotherhood, organizing next years ceremony teams and just having fun.

Why Brotherhood?

Brotherhood is an opportunity for members to evaluate their past service to Scouting and to their lodge and to reaffirm their belief in the high purposes of the Order. The ceremony is intended as a source of inspiration that motivates brothers to give even greater service to Scouting.

Kowaunkamish

With the exception of the upcoming Ordeal at Glacial Trails Scout Ranch on July 7-9, this is a quiet time of the year. Ordeal members are working on Brotherhood and the new candidates are being encouraged to attend the Ordeal. All our Arrowmen are attending summer camp with their units, working, or working as staff at one of the Golden Empire Council summer camps.

August will pickup again with continued planning for the W3 Conclave at Two Rock in September and River days in October. We also look forward to hosting the September 9th Lodge Meeting at Live Oak. "see map below"

Everyone have a safe summer and come back rejuvenated this fall.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Carl Brazee

Miwok

Miwok chapter has been busy. We had ten members at the Pahatsi Ordeal and four of them received their brotherhood. Congratulation to F. Jennings, M. Jennings, J. Galli and P. Burton. Great job guys!! It was one of the best run Ordeals that I have been to. We now have nine new members that went through their Ordeal that weekend, so for you new members get busy with the chapter and lets have some fun.

Speaking of fun. The chapter is planning a full day of fellowship, food and fun on Aug. 5, 2000. We will be learning more about how our Chapter and Lodge run, and having lunch. We will then have the rest of the afternoon to swim, play volleyball or horseshoes (for the elder members), ALL MEMBERS of Miwok Chapter are invited. We will start at 8:00 am and can go on until dark. If you are considering a chapter office for next year or have one now, it is strongly recommended that you attend. This should be a great day!! A mailer will be sent to all members of the chapter shortly.

I hope that you all are having a great summer at camp or vacation, but don't forget that there is still a little work to be done.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Richard Bright
Miwok Chapter Chief

Curahee

I want to take this opportunity to welcome all new Ordeal members to our chapter. Summer as usual is always slow, but as summer ends we need all new and old members to attend our chapter meetings. We meet on the third Thursday of each month. (7:00 p.m. at the Alamo LDS Church at Buck Street)

We are looking forward for a report from our new chief, Chris Williams, and Eric Criswell on their trip to NOAC this summer. Let us all welcome them home at our meeting in August.

I hope that by the time this newsletter is received, all members of the chapter will have registered for Conclave, and we will be arranging rides at the August meeting. In addition, at the August meeting we will be working on the Arrow of Light ceremony, and starting to work on next years Ordeal ceremony team.

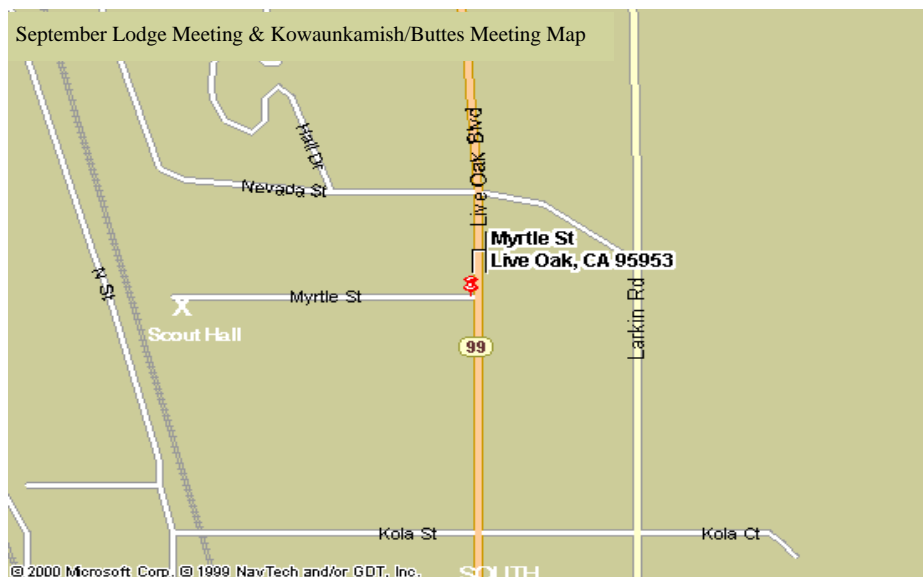

We want to especially invite all chapter members, both old and new, to our meeting in August. We are planning a special activity night. Make a note on your calendars for August 17 to be a fun night.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Ian Hongola

One simple idea is to have everyone make a choker. The cost would be about $5.00. Wearing the chokers to chapter meetings would get everyone together. Now you ask, how do we get the materials? Local hobby shops might have the materials, but Cliff Paulsen (an Indian hobbyists) sells the materials by mail order. Call him, he's an Order of the Arrow member. His business is called:

A WELCOME TO ALL NEW ARROW MEN From The Lodge Advisor

I would like to extend an Arrow mans welcome to all the new members who passed through their ordeal in the last three months. The personal achievement and experience is something you will carry with you the rest of your life. But always remember the journey of Cheerful Service has just begun and never ends. I cannot encourage each of you enough to always step forward to serve in you troop, family, religious community, Lodge and chapter. Service is not limited to just Scouting but rather is connected to every thing we do and the people we meet every day. Service is putting into action the Scout Oath and law. This is why we were chosen by members of our troops and units, nonmembers, people who saw in us something special and worthy to lead and act by example and make everything we touch a little better. Now is the time to set goals for yourself, become active in your chapter find something you like to do and get on that committee. Never wait to be asked for you may never be asked Arrow men step forward and get involved, Plan to earn your brotherhood honor at the next ordeals, be an Elangomat and help a candidate pass their ordeal, work on your chapters Camporee staff, start an arrow of light or ceremony team, you are only limited by your own imagination and effort to start today. I cannot THANK enough all the arrow men who gave so much of their time, effort, personal finances and in some-times extreme patience to serve our council camps ordeals and help have them ready for all the scouts who will enjoy life long memories from their experiences attending Great camps and programs offered this year in the Golden Empire Council a Special Thanks go out to ordeal master Luis Weger and Advisers Ron Cowan and Carl Brazee along with Gordon Cornell and Erin Cowan (Ron's daughter) in the kitchen at the G.T.S.R. ordeal. Ordeal master Will Usher and Adviser Gerry Albright along with Dave Canady, Craig Love, Mike Gaffney, Jonathan Trachy, and myself (when not talking) in the kitchen at Pahatsi. Ordeal master Ian Anderson and Adviser Bob Money maker along with Team Frutchey in the kitchen, Ed, Don Mahlke, Bill Albin, Gary Manning, Alan Glen, and Dave Waybright at the Winton ordeal. At the Lassen ordeal thanks go to Ordeal masters Randy Wells, John Denton and Adviser Dave Denton along with Al Vitzhum, Tom Wilkerson, Ross Wilkerson and Jonathan Trachy in the kitchen. We also need to THANK Nancy (The Admiral) Holzhey for bringing and running the Trading Post at all the Ordeals. Also behind the scenes in a big way was Mr. Bill Rogers working on and printing all the new member hand books. This year our camps went way out of their way for our ordeals by paying the cost of food for everyone attending and working at ordeals. Please THANK camp directors, Darrell Winn, Randy Aspinall, Mike Williamson and Eric Hearn when you see them. Something VERY SPECIAL is our new Lodge WEB page. Thanks to Mike Gaffney's trillion hours of work. Check this baby out especially the NEW MEMBER section, its almost do the puzzle and earn BROTHERHOOD. MIKES THE MAN !!! On a final note the Section Conclave is fast approaching don't put off preparing your chapter for events and having every member attend. Member registration counts towards keeping the Bald Eagle in our lodge.

As always in Cheerful Service and Serious party,
Larry Frith

THE NOAC ADVENTURE

On July 27th several representatives of the Lodge will be boarding an airplane at Sacramento International Airport for the long flight to Knoxville, Tennessee, host city for NOAC 2000. The event will occur from July 29 to August 3, 2000, at the University of Tennessee. This week will be filled with learning, competitions, entertainment OA-style, and lots of fun! Attendees should return with lots of new ideas about implementing the new, revised program adopted by the Order of the Arrow nationally, and lots of ideas about how to train our members.

For those who were lucky enough to get a slot on the Lodge Contingent I have a few last minute reminders. You must be at the United Ticket Counter no later than 9:30 PM and have your picture ID available to get on the flight. Remember, travel dress is in full Class A Boy Scout Uniform. And don't forget your spending money. You are responsible to purchase you own meals except for that time when you are at the NOAC event. This means breakfast, lunch, and dinner on July 28th, breakfast and lunch on July 29th, and lunch and dinner on August 3rd.

We will be staying in Knoxville the night of July 28th at the Radisson Summit Hill Hotel. The phone number is (865) 522-2600. The hotel is within walking distance of the Trade-O-Ree that occurs just in advance of each NOAC. This is a super patch trading event which you will certainly want to experience. The next morning we will be traveling over to the University of Tennessee for registration. The University is located right on the Tennessee River in the heart of Knoxville.

You will be transported from place to place in a van rented by the Lodge. It will be necessary to transport in small groups so you will be expected to conduct yourselves as Scouts at all times. You should prepare for warm temperatures, high humidity, and occasional thundershowers. Lows will probably be in the 60's.

No electronic devices are permitted at NOAC. This includes games, radios, CD-players, and other related equipment. Also no drugs, tobacco products, alcohol, pornography, or other unlawful substances. This can earn you a fast trip home, and all of the Advisers do not want to see this happen. Let's make this a fun event!

Lodge Chief

Let me first extend my welcome to all of you that are new Ordeal members. You should feel honored to have been chosen by your fellow Scouts for a high calling of service to others. By completing the Ordeal, you have taken that first step in what I hope will be a lifelong dedication to service through the Order of the Arrow.

Get involved now! The best way to do this is through active attendance at the local chapter level. And when you desire more, ask you Chapter Chief or Advisor about positions on the Lodge level. One of you will someday be the Lodge Chief.

Finally, make sure you attend this year's Fall Fellowship, to be held October 15-17 at Fallon Naval Air Station. Besides being great opportunities to get a first hand look at Naval Aviation, you'll get the once-a-year opportunity to get to know our lodge. I got to meet some of you at the Ordeals, and I look forward to meeting ALL of you at the Fellowship! Should you have any questions, feel free to send me an e-mail at lmccrary@usa.net.

At the next lodge meeting on September 9, we continue planning for our Fall Fellowship and the Lodge Dinner, and conduct final preparation for the Section Conclave. Should you desire to serve on any program committee, please don't hesitate to contact me by e-mail at lmccrary@usa.net.

The 28th of July through the 3rd of August our lodge contingent will attend the National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) at the University of Knoxville in Tennessee. I'm looking forward to learning about what other lodges are doing, and finding out how we can improve our own lodge. If you're not attending, it's never too early to mark your calendar for the next NOAC, held in the summer of 2002.

Hoping you're having a great summer,
I am Yours in brotherhood,
Lewis E. McCrary
Lodge Chief

Communications

For those new members I would like to welcome you in to the order. From the ordeals that I attend I was most impressed with the amount of cheerful service being expressed.

My Newsletter staff is growing quite well I still need one more person if you would like to have a position in the Newsletter staff please contact. For those going to NOAC I wish you a safe trip and a wonderful time. For those competing the most of luck to you. I want you in put on the newsletter because this newsletter represents the lodge not the staff that puts it together. Finally those of you that turn in articles thank you, those that didn't please make sure that you do.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Jonathan Trachy
Publications Director/Editor

Inductions

I'm glad to say that all the ordeals went very well, I'm sure with all the new members the future of the lodge will be great. for those who still have candidates in your troop who haven't gone to an ordeal yet need to do so at the October ordeal. for all the new members I welcome you and advise you start working on your brotherhood so you will be ready in 10 months.

Yours in brotherhood,
Ryan Starr
Vice Chief of Inductions

Camping & Vigil Selection

Hello brothers, I would like to congratulate all the new members who just went through ordeals. We hope you all will get involved in your chapters and also the lodge. I would also like to thank all the people who took time out of their busy lives to help with the vigil committee selection. The meeting was a success and the recipients will be announced in the upcoming months. In order to help retain possession of the Bald Eagle this coming conclave, the camping committee needs to do its part in the competitions. The only way this can happen is if we get more people to join the camping committee and help with the cause. We are also looking for a dedicated few OA members to take photos of the different camps and activities coming up. The camp promotion booth is ready to be loaned out to people who are interested For information on how to get on the camping committee, to become the camping committee's photographer, or to rent out the camp promotions booth, e-mail me at mecki\_mania@hotmail.com or call me at (916) 965-9461.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Sean Gaffney
Vice Chief of Camping
Vigil Chairman

Indian Lore

One simple but important point to remember about Indian Outfitting is using the words "Outfit or Regalia". We in scouting tend to say "costume", but to the American Indian this is a belittling term. People wear costumes at Halloween, but the outfit worn at a Pow Wow is a set of clothing that is a part of their culture. It would be similar to calling a scout in uniform, "a scout in costume." This may seem like a small thing to worry about, but we are invading another culture, we need to take small steps. Look on page #3 of this news letter for the article on "add Indian Lore to Our Program"

Yours in Brotherhood,
Brian Wilkinson
Indian Lore Vice-Chief

Winton Ordeal

In my opinion, the ordeal was a success at Winton. We had 88 Scouts sealing their membership in the Order of the Arrow and 7 Members sealing their membership as Brotherhood members. Running this event was Ian Anderson, Ordeal Master and Kodo Noko Woli Chapter Chief, Tony Mastrogiovanni, Assistant Ordeal Master and Kodo Noko Woli Chapter Vice Chief of Program, Bob MoneyMaker, Co-Ordeal Advisor and Kodo Noko Woli Chapter Advisor, and Bill Rogers, Co-Ordeal Advisor and Curahee Chapter Advisor. Special thanks go out to Ryan Starr, Lodge Vice Chief of Inductions, Nancy Holzhey, Lodge Trading Post, Marilyn Elmer, Ta Tanka Ska Chapter Advisor, Michael Perry, Ta Tanka Ska Chapter Chief, Ray Grant, Acting Cha Pa Di Chapter Advisor, Larry Frith, Lodge Advisor, Eric Allred, Lodge Staff Advisor, Jeffrey Aguero, Ordeal Administrative Assistant, Ed Frutche, Bill Aubin, and the rest of the wonderful cooking staff, and all of the terrific Camp Winton staff for their hard work and patience putting up with us. I also want to thank all those I forgot to mention but are just as important.

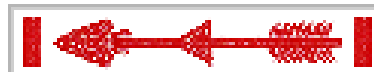

In opinion to the camp, we had a blast. The camp was nice and organized when I arrived, and there were plenty of works projects to go around. The cabins were comfortable. As far as weather goes, perfect. We had sunshine all weekend and not a sign of rain or snow. In closing, I have to say the food was wonderful, as always, and I had fun. I'm looking forward to attending next year.

OA Team Representative Job Description:

In his team, he serves as a communication and programmatic link to the Arrowmen and adult leaders and Varsity Scouts who are not presently members of the Order. ## Troop/Team Representative

Long years ago, the Lenni Lenape Tribe of the Delaware Indians inhabited the Delaware River Valley. Their villages were numerous and powerful; their hunting parties strong. They were a peaceful people, never warring with other tribes unless first attacked.

Many moons they lived in this blissful state of happy contentment. But a cloud arose on this peaceful scene. Neighboring tribes and distant enemies began to raid their hunting grounds. Then Chingachgook, the chief of the Lenni Lenape Tribe, made inquire, "Who will go and warn the villages of the Delawares of the danger which threatens?" But none wished to go. One said, "Let them look to themselves—we are happy here." Another said, "Why should we be concerned as long as we are safe?" But Uncas, his son, said, "My father, here am I; send me. All these villages are of our blood—the Lenni Lenape. What is danger to one is the affair of all. The need is urgent. They are six to our one, and if we are to survive as a nation, we must all stand by each other. Meanwhile let us both urge upon our kindred the necessity of unselfish devotion to each other and the cause in which we are enlisted, and as they get this higher vision, send them forth on their errand of cheerful service."

Then Chingachgook, the chief, and his son, Uncas, set to work. In every village were found some who were willing to give themselves cheerfully in the service of others. Their enemies were compelled to retire to their own borders and, when peace was declared between them, they who first went out cheerfully to serve their kindred were raised to places of high eminence in the tribe by the chief. For, he said, "The servant of all is the greatest of all." And these men became so convinced of the truth of this saying that they besought the chief to perpetuate it in some manner.

So Chingachgook bound them together in a Brotherhood into which only they can be admitted who can forget their own interests and advancement while looking out for those of their brothers. And there must be so considered and recommended for membership by their associates. So greatly did this Order aid and strengthen the Lenni Lenape that other tribes seeing this besought their help in forming similar lodges in their own tribes. So in the same spirit of service such lodges were formed, which were bound together into a great Brotherhood.

And so we, the followers of the early Indian on this soil, perpetuate to the present day the Brotherhood of Cheerful Service, which being translated into the language of the Delaware Indians, becomes Wimachtendienk, Wingolauchsik, Witahemui.

Section/National Events

Section Conclave

Our Lodge is one of several lodges (from Fresno to Redding) in Section W3B. The Section is responsible for coordinating the lodges in the area and helping them better serve the council they represent. Each year these lodges get together for a weekend of training and fun. There are competitions in ceremonies, lodge administration, sports events, and a great show. It is a time to show the other lodges in the Section what Amangi Nacha has to offer. It also gives us a chance to see what other lodges are doing. Everyone is encouraged to attend. It is always held in September.

National Order of the Arrow Conference

NOAC is held every two years at a major university somewhere in the United States. This is one of the most inspiring and valuable adventures in an Arrowmen's Scouting Experience. These conferences are to the Order of the Arrow what Jamboree is to Scouting. They also serve as the training ground for those who aspire to top leadership positions in the Lodge.
