2002 NOAC a Great Success

The 2002 National Order of the Arrow Conference at Indiana University has now moved into the history books. This event was one of the biggest NOACs ever held with over 7,100 Arrowmen and Guests in attendance. Our Lodge was well represented with 50 Arrowmen and had our highest level of performance of any NOAC attended.

From the beginning to the end it was a sight to behold. Lodge Chief JP Jones was heard to remark 'awesome!' on several occasions and Mike Gaffney, Lodge Advisor, stated this was our best effort ever. Contingent leaders Brian Page and Kim Wilkerson were equally surprised at how well we had done.

It all started when the youth leadership was informed they would begin the Conference by showing up to registration in a stretch limousine. Information was leaked to higher-ups of our pending entrance and the media was ready in force. So was security who attempted to commandeer the limo for their own sorted uses. Every youth and most adults had an opportunity to arrive in the lap of luxury.

Throughout the event we continued to do well. Our basketball made it into the third round while our soccer team finally lost in the fourth round or quarter finals. The dancers were equally impressive with a couple of Arrowmen making it into the semi-finals. Our brotherhood team scored a near perfect score. The Lodge also did well in the Goodman 500 (pinewood derby race) with a first, third and fifth place finishes in the Western Region while Mark Woodward took third nationally.

We continued to show our improvement in communications by being rated an Honor Site as one of the top websites in the country. Special thanks to Dave Denton for his work on the website. Our newsletter received the National Standard rating. This was a major improvement from the previous period. Continued on page 3.

Chief's Corner

I'm sure we're all glad to be back home to this nice, dry weather. Although you might be glad not to be sticky 24/7 I have no doubts that each and every one of you had an awesome time at NOAC this year. This was my first NOAC and I had a blast.

However, this trip would not have gone over so smoothly without the excellent participation and hard work of our leaders. I don't think I would even think about attempting to take a group of 50 guys into Hooters. So with this I would like to thank you all for your responsible and mature behavior throughout our trip.

Also, we should be very proud of our lodge and their results in the competitions. We had class A teams in soccer, basketball (we would have been Nat. Champs), ceremony, dance, pinewood derby, and website. I have been told this is the most active our lodge has been at a NOAC as well as having much better results than before.

All of you, having now been trained by the best at NOAC, are now part of the core of our lodge. Although it might not seem this way to you, our lodge is really depending on new, trained leaders to support and run our lodge. So I ask you to please stay active in the brotherhood and help your lodge and chapter as much as you can, you won't regret it.

Lastly, I would like to thank Brian Page and Kim Wilkinson for an outstanding job as the 2002 NOAC contingent leaders. We all have you to thank for a smooth running trip and a great experience.

Thank you all again for the excellent experience I had, and I am proud to be serving all of you as your Lodge Chief.

The Nachos are truly Amazing,

Yours in Brotherhood

Lodge Chief

The newsletter received high marks for its new appearance, thanks to its designer, David Ashe. All in all we had a great time at the Conference.

Tour Notes.....

Prior to attending NOAC the contingent had an opportunity to visit the Indianapolis Speedway and museum.

The museum housed many terrific vintage race cars from 1911 to date. Some of the fastest cars in the world were on display as well as many raceway memorabilia items.

After the conference the contingent had an opportunity to see a great IMAX film on space, attend the Indiana State Museum and eat at a world famous restaurant. What restaurant you ask, why Hooters of course. Lodge Chief JP Jones arranged this special surprise for the scouts before they were to depart for the airport and the trip home. Parents, please note that the boys were well behaved and treated to good food. And conversation with the waitresses. Unfortunately, we bought out all their calendars and none were left for the rest of their customers...bummer.

You can view many of the pictures from the NOAC experience by going to the lodge website and clicking on NOAC.

Ordeal to Brotherhood

Few Lodges attain the status of Honor Lodge. Honor Lodge indicates that the recipient Lodge has performed at high levels in all the required categories.

Many times in recent years our Lodge has missed Honor Lodge, primarily due to lower than required Ordeal to Brotherhood conversions-until now!

Thanks to a new approach orchestrated by Lodge Advisor Mike Gaffney we appear to be on the verge of success. Rather than wait for Ordeal members to go through the Brotherhood program, many eligible members were simply put through training at various events and then completed the ceremony. This concept has proven highly successful.

Each Chapter was assigned a designated number of conversions. As of August 15, 2002 we have attained over 100% of our goal and are sure to exceed the required number at the upcoming Pollack Ordeal and Fall Fellowship.

If you know of anyone needing to complete Brotherhood, be sure to get them to one of these events.

Diamond Peak-Section Conclave at its Best

Have you ever wanted to be on the top of a mountain at night, perhaps looking down on a beautiful blue lake with the moon shining off its surface and the lights of small communities and cabins dotting its shoreline. Well we have got an event for you.

Section W3B and Tannu Lodge 346 are hosting our annual Section Conclave at Diamond Peak at Incline Village at Lake Tahoe, Nevada. The cost of this event is only $30. Event dates are September 13-15. One of the highlights will be the Saturday night show at the top of a mountain over 7,500 feet high. If all goes well you may be able to use a ski lift to ascend to the top.

Other events will include various training programs under the University system, sports and Indian event competitions and the election of new section officers.

If you are not registered please use the form enclosed or go online at www.sectionw3b.org to register by credit card.

Lodge Advisor Corner

With the start of the school year we are going to be continuing a very busy schedule. I encourage everyone to give as much participation as possible to your chapter and the lodge so that we can give the utmost service to Scouting. From the Section Conclave in September to the Fall Fellowship all the way through the lodge dinner in November we will need your support.

Your support especially will be needed on the weekend of October 4-6 this is the Pollock ordeal. We have a lot of work to get accomplished this weekend so please sign up early.

Over the next few months you will be selecting our leaders for the coming year. One of the ways you can do service to the order is by being a Officer. If you are interested in running for a section office or a lodge office please contact me as you need the Lodge advisors approval and recommendation to run.

Yours in Brotherhood

Mike Gaffney

Scouting at its Best

Some words of wisdom from Will Rogers:

"If you're riding ahead of the herd, take a look back every now and then to make sure it's still there."

"If you get to thinking you're a person of some influence, try ordering somebody else's dog around."

"The quickest way to double your money is to fold it over and put it back in your pocket."

"After eating an entire bull, a mountain lion felt so good he started roaring. He kept it up until a hunter came along and shot him... The moral: When you're full of bull, keep your mouth shut."

"If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop digging."

Fall Fellowship News

Set October 18-20 aside on your calendar for fun and fellowship with your fellow lodge Arrowman. This is the date of the Amangi Nacha Lodge Fellowship being held at Camp Lassen.

There will be Indian activities and sports galore to include shotgun and archery. Elections will also be held at the Fellowship, so if you have an interest in running for a lodge position be sure and notify Mike Gaffney, Lodge Advisor, of your intention in writing.

You will find the registration form in this newsletter.
