Obligation

I do hereby promise on my honor as a Scout, that I will always and faithfully observe and preserve the traditions of the Order of the Arrow, WIMACHTENDIENK, WINGOLAUCHSIK, WITAHemui. I will always regard the ties of brotherhood in the Order of the Arrow, as lasting, and will seek to preserve a cheerful spirit even in the midst of irksome tasks and weighty responsibilities, and will endeavor, so far as in my power lies, to be unselfish in service and devotion to the welfare of others.

Song

Firm bound in brotherhood, gather the clan that cheerful service brings to fellow man.

Circle our council fire, weld tightly every link that binds us in brotherhood, Wimachtendienk.

Dear Amangi Nacha Lodge,

Hello everyone, I would like to start off by thanking everyone on the 2023 LEC for such an amazing year and setting us up for an even better year in 2024. Next year I would like to continue and build upon the activities and events of this year. Both our fellowships saw an above average attendance level from our lodge, I would like to further increase those numbers. We had an amazing induction year, and again I would like to push up the induction rate even more. Most importantly I would like to get more and more people involved in leadership, as this is a great place to learn. Overall I see a great future for our lodge in continuing to bounce back for the Covid Epidemic and I would like everyone in 2024 to help contribute to that future. Also, I can not wait to see the lodge contingent as we adventure to Colorado for the 2024 NOAC. I would like to thank you all for attending this lodge dinner and the work you have put into this lodge, and let's have a great year!

Sincerely,

Alex Hall

Lodge Events

Ordeals

The lodge holds three induction weekends called Ordeals every year. The first one is in May at Camp Lassen. The second one is in June at Camp Winton. The third ordeal is in August at NorCal Adventure Area. Ordeals may have a Brotherhood ceremony. All OA members are strongly encouraged to attend and support the candidates.

Fall Fellowship

Fall Fellowship is an event put on every year, usually the first weekend in October, where all the Arrowmen in the lodge get together for fun and fellowship. There are many chapter and lodge competitions and other fun activities for people to participate in. This event also holds a Brotherhood ceremony. At this event, we elect our lodge officers for the next year. All OA members are strongly encouraged to attend.

Winter Fellowship

Winter Fellowship is an event put on every year in March where Arrowmen in the lodge get together for fun, fellowship, and learning more about American Indian Culture. Arrowment can learn things like dance and drum, how to do ceremonies, and regalia. This event also holds a Brotherhood ceremony. All OA members are strongly encouraged to attend.

Lodge Annual Dinner

Each year the lodge holds its annual dinner on the first Saturday of November. It is a time to review the past year and promote upcoming events. Lodge Awards are handed out and the installation of the next year's lodge officers takes place. All Arrowmen and their families are welcome to attend.

Takachsin

Takachsin is the annual Lodge Leadership Development (LLD) put on by the outgoing lodge leadership. It is held on the first Saturday of November before the Lodge Dinner at the same location that evening. The event trains all lodge and chapter officers and advisers. All lodge and chapter officers and advisers are required to attend, all Arrowmen are encouraged to attend.

Lodge Council of Chiefs

The monthly Council of Chiefs (COC) meeting happens on the first Saturday of every month where all lodge and chapter leaderships get together to give reports on what happened in the past month and what is upcoming. These meetings are where policies are set, event planning happens, and where finances are controlled. All Arrowmen are encouraged to attend. These meetings are run by the Lodge Chief.

Chapter Meetings/Events

Chapter meetings and events put on by the chapters.

Section & National Events

Section Conclave

Amangi Nacha Lodge is one of the five lodges in Section G17N. Each year in September (usually second or third weekend), all the lodges in the section get together for a weekend of fun and training while building the bonds of brotherhood with people from other lodges/councils as well as ones on their own. This is where the next year's section officers are elected and installed.

National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC)

The National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) is the flagship national Order of the Arrow event. It is held every two years at a major university campus and is typically attended by as many as 8,000 Arrowmen from all 50 states. It is second only to the BSA National Jamboree in size and scope.

National Leadership Seminar (NLS)

The National Leadership Seminar (NLS) is a weekend conference focused on the skills and attributes of leadership. The program enhances the leadership skills of the Order of the Arrow's key youth and adult members as they seek to improve their services to the Boy Scouts of America and the greater community.

Amangi Nacha Lodge #47 History

In 1992, the Buttes Area Council, Golden Empire Council, and the Mount Lassen Area Council merged as a result of Western Region reorganization. The new Council was given the name of the "Golden Empire Council". The council's headquarters was established in Sacramento, California, with field offices established in Redding, California; Chico, California; and Marysville, California.

As a result of this merger, the national office of The Order of the Arrow dictated that the new council would have until January 1, 1993, to merge the 3 lodges. Wil Conner was named as the Lodge Adviser for the new lodge. To prepare for the upcoming merger, Wil Conner, lodge adviser, drew up five merger agreements. Each merger agreement was distributed to the individual lodges (Kowaunkamish Lodge, Mayi Lodge, and Tehama Lodge). Each lodge was given time to review the agreements before scheduling a meeting. Several meetings were held where the agreements were discussed and plans were made to hold a work fellowship at Beale Air Force Base to approve and accept the merger.

The work fellowship was scheduled for October 1992 with Matt Conner selected as the Fellowship Chairman and Frank Glick was appointed as the Fellowship Adviser. The fellowship was later rescheduled for December 11, 12, 13, 1992 due to arising conflicts with schedules, facilities, and planning. Frank Glick designed and ordered a patch for the fellowship. It served as a reminder of the three lodges that were merging and the formation of the new lodge #47.

One hundred fifty scouts and scouters converged on Beale Air Force Base to take part in the new lodge's first fellowship. Mayi Lodge served as the host lodge. After several meetings on Friday night and Saturday morning, a merger agreement was announced and approved by the three existing lodge council of chiefs. It detailed out a one-year plan to integrate the three lodges into one "super lodge." Each of the existing lodges would be renamed as tribes, with the tribe chiefs serving with the elected lodge chiefs to form the lodge council of chiefs. Each tribe would be further broken down into chapters and the chapters had the opportunity to divide into clans. The clans would service the rural areas where travel distances would prohibit members from participating in chapter events.

Ron Cowen was selected as the Kowaunkamish Tribe Adviser, Richard Lozano was selected as the Mayi Tribe Adviser, and Bob Nelson was selected as the Tehama Tribe Adviser.

One of the major concerns addressed at the fellowship was the distribution of the existing lodge's funds and how to fund the new lodge. It was agreed that each of the existing lodges would give a portion of their funds to the new lodge. The existing lodges would keep the funds in a chapter account for their membership's use. All money would be controlled through the lodge adviser for finance.

Saturday night of the fellowship the first lodge officers were elected. Each of the existing lodges would have a block of votes they could cast in any way they saw fit. P.T. McEwen, Section W3B Chief, Wil Conner, Lodge Adviser, and Jim McDaniel, Section W3B Adviser were present to officiate the election.

Brian Osterhout was elected as the first lodge chief. Dan Householder was elected as the Vice-Chief for Program. Coady Pruett was elected as the Vice-Chief for Communication. Ketan Patel was elected as the Lodge Secretary/Treasurer. The lodge council of chiefs was convened on Sunday morning and the by-laws were approved.

The council of chiefs set future meeting dates and elected to extend the period for nominations for lodge name, newspaper name, and totem. In January, the lodge council of chiefs elected to name the new lodge "Amangi Nacha" with the Quail as the totem. The newspaper was named "Se-Kah-Ke Squawks." Gerry Albright was named as the first adviser. It was a bi-monthly newspaper printed at Herburger Publishing in Galt, California.

The lodge printed two press runs of the flap. The S-1 was a fundraiser flap. It was larger than the general press run and was limited in its production. The S-3 was a general issue flap to be worn by all members. Wil Conner appointed his advisers to help him serve the lodge. They were: Bob Nelson, Administration Adviser; Frank Glick, Trading Post Adviser; Matt Conner, Newspaper Adviser; Craig Tanner, Inductions Adviser; and Bill Rogers, Camping Adviser.

The lodge held its first officer training in 1993 at Camp Pollock. It was called the "Takachsin." The training was modeled after the Mayi Lodge's "Takachsin" program and the National Leadership Seminar outline.

Adam Craig was elected as the second lodge chief at the fellowship held at Beale Air Force Base and Doug Wacker was appointed as the Lodge Program Adviser. On August 28, 1994, the lodge Council of Chiefs voted to change the lodge by-laws and restructure the lodge. The tribe system was discontinued. This was done to "bring the chapters closer" to the lodge and facilitate the process. The lodge was now composed of 13 chapters.

Doug Wacker was selected as the next Lodge Adviser in October 1995. Also in October 1995, Greg Frith was elected as the lodge chief. Bob Nelson was appointed as the Lodge Finance Adviser and Larry Frith was appointed as the Lodge Program Adviser.

In October 1996, Josh Ramsey was elected as the lodge chief, and Bob Nelson was named as the new Lodge Adviser. In October 1997 Jeff Allen was elected as the lodge chief with Bob Nelson continuing as Lodge Adviser.

In October 1998, Carl Krigbaum was elected as the lodge chief, with Bob Nelson continuing as Lodge Adviser. Then in October 1999, Lewis McCrary was elected as the lodge chief, and Larry Frith was named the new Lodge Adviser.

In January 2019, two of the Golden Empire Councils District geographic boundaries were merged. The Trailblazer District and the Yolo District were merged to form the Yolano District. The current count of 12 districts was reduced to 11 districts. In August 2019, the Curahee Chapter and the Tito-Wa Chapter merged to create a new Chapter, named "Achach", with a chapter totem of a Yellow-billed Magpie, transitioning from 12 chapters to 11 chapters. In the same year, Amangi Nacha Lodge welcomed their first female youth arrowmen.

In January 2020, the Golden Empire Councils District geographic boundaries changed. The current count of 11 districts was reduced to 7 districts. In August 2020, the Council of Chiefs transitioned the chapters from 11 chapters to 7 chapters. Each chapter discussed options for new chapter names, chapter totems, and chapter meeting locations.

Kowaunkamish Lodge History

Buttes Area Council First chartered its Order of the Arrow Lodge on June 1, 1948. The original name of the lodge was Tribe of La Porte, which was taken from the camp honor society it replaced.

The Lodge renewed its lapsed charter in 1950, and changed its name to Kowaunkamish, meaning "my service to you" in the language of the Narragansett Indians. The Lodge totem, the river devil (spirit), represents camping, hiking, wildlife, Scouting skills, and service to others. The Lodge served a small Council territory consisting of Colusa, Sutter, Yuba, and southern Butte counties. The Lodge newspaper was called "Drum Beat."

Among the highlights of Kowaunkamish Lodge history are the 12-C Conferences it hosted in 1959 at Beale Air Force Base; in 1964 at the Colusa Fairgrounds; and in 1972 at Beale Air Force Base.

In 1983, Kowaunkamish Lodge went to a 3 chapter system. Until this time they were the only Lodge in the Section without chapters. In 1984, they changed their Lodge flap to meet national standards. Also in 1984, Kowaunkamish was one of 2 Lodges within Section W3B to obtain the Brotherhood Attainment Award.

Mayi Lodge History

From 1926 to 1941, Camp Audrain near Echo Summit served as the summer camp for the Golden Empire Council. The camp honor society used at Camp Audrain was called the Tribe of Tahoe. Members included Braves, Warriors, Medicine men and Chiefs. The Tribe of Tahoe conducted all of its activities at camp, so when Camp Audrain was closed because of World War II, the Tribe of Tahoe was effectively disbanded.

In the fall of 1946, Field Scout Executive Jim Wright called a meeting of Perry Baker, Karl Kuhn, Charles McClung, Frank Palmer, Del Springer, and Charles Thomas, adults who were all Chiefs in the Tribe of Tahoe. At this meeting, the Order of the Arrow program was introduced and explained. The organizing committee learned that National leaders were recommending the program to all Councils. The committee decided to adopt the Order of the Arrow as our Council's honor camping society, and began work in forming the new lodge. Steve Cannon, Bob Martin, and Norman Kuhn, all young men, were selected as the Lodge's first candidates, and that fall went throughout their Ordeal at a Stockton Conclave. In the Spring of 1947, the six adults on the organizing committee with other young men, underwent the Ordeal.

The new Lodge chose the leaping Chinook salmon as its totem and the name Mayi, which means Salmon in the language of the Maidu. The name and totem were chosen because they would be representative of the Indian background of the area, the Salmon being a principal food source of the native Maidu Indians.

Mayi Lodge grew quickly as more units elected candidates and the Scouting program grew overall in members. The Lodge organized 2 Ordeals a year, one in late spring, and one in early fall. As more candidates were elected, it was decided to split the spring Ordeal into 2 and add more spring Ordeals.

In the early years, members concentrated on activities utilizing Indian Lore such as ceremonies and dancing. Ml members built complete outfits, typically of the Plains Indian variety. Indian dancing was a primary activity for the Lodge and Chapters.

Mayi Lodge strived to make the operation of Area 12-C successful in the 1950's. Our members served as area officers and advisers and the Lodge hosted five area conferences (1954, 1958, 1961, 1962, 1969). The Lodge also held several Lodge-wide activities beginning in the late 1950's, including the Father and Son Dinner (now the Lodge Dinner), the Camp rally and the Arrowmen's Ball.

In the 1960's our Lodge became increasingly concerned with meeting the goal of camp promotion. Lodge leaders organized projects providing service to the camping program, and produced camping promotion aids like the cooking contest, "Where to go Camping booklet," and the camp promotion slideshow.

The merger of Canaku Lodge #511 into Mayi Lodge pushed the size of the Lodge to a peak of 20 chapters and over 1600 active members. Then membership in the Lodge and Scouting began to drop Chapters which were split and merged again. The membership drop was so great that it reached a low of about 500 members in December 1976.

In the mid and late 1970's, Mayi Lodge started to improve its program in three areas: induction, training, and communications. In the induction process, unnecessary ritual was replaced with a more meaningful Ordeal. A comprehensive training program for Chapter leaders was created in 1977 called Takachsin training. Communications were improved through the improvement of the Mayi Lodge newsletter, Smoke Signals, which became better written, more frequently used and more attractively designed.

Tehama Lodge History

Tehama Lodge #485 has been an active lodge from the very beginning. It hosted the 1952 Area 12-C Conference at Camp Lassen, even before its first charter was issued (December 30). Tehama was the name of the Copenhan Indian Tribe: the name given to the extinct volcano that once existed where Mount Lassen has since risen. The Lodge totem was Mount Lassen, a currently existing, dormant volcano.

Since 1952, Tehama has hosted 2 major inter-Lodge activities. The 1970 Area 12-C Conference, at Bristow Hood Scout Reservation, and the fourth annual Section W3B Conclave, in 1976 at Camp Lassen.

Tehama Lodge is divided into three Chapters: Maidu, Wintun, and Yana (The three local Indian Tribes). The Lodge newsletter was named "Brave Talk." The Lodge was chartered by the Mount Lassen Area Council, which served Butte, Glenn, Shasta, Tehama, and Trinity Counties.

Canaku Lodge History

Canaku Lodge #511 was the Order of the Arrow Lodge formed in 1955 by the Tahoe Area Council. The Council Headquarters was in Auburn, CA and serviced Boy Scouts living in Placer and Nevada Counties. Canaku hosted Area 12-C Conclaves in 1963 and 1968. The Order of the Arrow started rather late because the Council had the Tribe of Pahatsi (at Camp Pahatsi which started around 1922) as its Honor Camper Society. This Tribe concept had four levels: Brave, Warrior, Medicine Man and Chief.

The Canaku totem was the Acorn; however around 1966 to 1968 no Lodge Flaps were available. In 1968 there was a patch design contest. The Scout Executive wanted the Sugar Pine Cone as the totem (but the Lodge never approved this change) and asked that all patch designs have that on the patch.

In January 1971, the Tahoe Area Council merged with the Golden Empire Council and the Canaku Lodge was merged into Mayi Lodge.

By-Laws

Awarded in recognition of providing service to the lodge through Ceremonies. Ceremonialists are awarded the corresponding medallion of the principle the ceremonies were performed. Can be earned by completing ceremonies at 3 different events, does not extend to 3 individual ceremonies, only full events. Must be 3 events per principle per medallion. To be awarded the corresponding medallion of the principle the ceremonies were performed as.

Elangomat Award

The Elangomat Award is awarded to those who; 1) Participate in the Elangomat training, 2) Perform as an Elangomat for One ordeal Clan, 3) Stay in contact with your Clan and obtain a 75% Brotherhood achievement within 12 months of their Ordeal. It will be handed out at the Lodge Dinner for the year in which criteria is completed.

Purpose of the Order of the Arrow

As Scouting's National Honor Society, our purpose is to:

- Recognize those who best exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their daily lives and through that recognition cause others to conduct themselves in a way that warrants similar recognition.
- Promote camping, responsible outdoor adventure, and environmental stewardship as essential components of every Scout's experience, in the unit, year-round, and in summer camp.
- Develop leaders with the willingness, character, spirit and ability to advance the activities of their units, our Brotherhood, Scouting, and ultimately our nation.
- Crystallize the Scout habit of helpfulness into a life purpose of leadership in cheerful service to others

Requirements for the Order of the Arrow

Unit elections are permitted in Scouts BSA, Venturing, and Sea Scout units. The Order of the Arrow membership requirements are as follows:

- Be a registered member of the Boy Scouts of America.
- Have experienced 15 nights of Scout camping while registered with a troop, crew, or ship within the two years immediately prior to the election. The 15 nights must include one, but no more than one, long-term camp consisting of at least five consecutive nights of overnight camping, approved and under the auspices and standards of the Boy Scouts of America. Only five nights of the long-term camp may be credited toward the 15-night camping requirement; the balance of the camping (10 nights) must be overnight, weekend, or other short-term camps of, at most, three nights each. Ship nights may be counted as camping for Sea Scouts.
- At the time of their election, youth must be under the age of 21, and hold one of the following ranks corresponding to the type unit in which they are being considered for election: Scouts BSA First Class rank, the Venturing Discovery rank, or the Sea Scout Ordinary rank or higher, and following approval by the Scoutmaster, Crew Advisor or Sea Scout Skipper, be elected by the youth members of their unit.
- Adults (age 21 or older) who meet the camping requirements may be selected following nomination to and approval by the lodge adult selection committee.

Brotherhood Honor

After 6 months of service as an Ordeal member and fulfilling certain requirements, a member may take part in the Brotherhood ceremony, which places further emphasis on the ideals of Scouting and the Order. Completion of this ceremony signifies full membership in the Order.

Vigil Honor

After two years of exceptional service as a Brotherhood member, and with the approval of the national Order of the Arrow committee, a Scout or Scouter may be recognized with the Vigil Honor for their distinguished contributions to their lodge, the Order of the Arrow, Scouting, or their Scout camp. This honor is bestowed by special selection and is limited to one person for every 50 members registered with the lodge each year.

Order of the Arrow Troop Representative

The Order of the Arrow Troop Representative serves as a communication link between the local OA lodge or chapter and the troop. They promote year-round and resident camping and participate in high-adventure programs and community service projects. They encourage Arrowmen in the troop to be active participants in lodge or chapter activities and to seal their membership in the order by becoming Brotherhood members.

Try to also have for Crews and Ships too to strengthen relations.

Role of Non-Adviser Scouters

As a scouter who has not been appointed as an adult adviser, your primary responsibilities are outside the Order of the Arrow. Your main duty in the Order of the Arrow is to support its program in your scouting position.

If you serve as a Scoutmaster, Crew Advisor, or Sea Scout Skipper, you know your attitudes will be reflected in those of your scouts. You may not have the time to attend OA activities regularly. Unit functions, roundtables, and scout leader training come first. But you can make your feelings toward the order known. Since you understand the importance of your unit to the order, you can speak well of it. As a result, your scouts will support both. Since your time is limited, encourage one of your assistants who is an Arrowman to make the order their special responsibility. Your Arrowmen will then have a source of transportation and an additional source of inspiration.

Many scouters find Order of the Arrow functions an excellent opportunity to relax, take stock, meet other scouters, and get to know their youth leaders better. Your efforts to support the order during these activities will be appreciated. Offer transportation or help with a special skill. But especially give a positive example and encouragement to all brothers.
